1. ELA stands for...

A. Examining Live Animals

[Nope, but your student may do that if she takes Professor Brooks' Animal Behavior course!]

B. Engaging Learning Aspirations

[Nope, but we think your student will do this often!]

C. Environmental Liberal Arts

[Right! We're very proud of our ELA (Environmental Liberal Arts) general education program.]

2. The Book Depot is located in...

A. The Waldron athletic facility

[No, but it's a great place to exercise in the fitness center or enjoy a basketball game.]

B. Withey Hall

[Yes!]

C. The CAT Center

[No, but the CAT (Careers, Advising, Teaching) Center is a great place for your student to get to know.]

3. The president of the college is...

A. Heather Keith

[No, she's the director of the Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning, and a professor of Philosophy; She may think she'd be a good president, but they wouldn't dare let a philosopher in the president's office!]

B. Christina Fabrey

[She'd be an awesome president, but she's far too busy being the director of the Center for Advising and Achievement!]

C. Bob Allen

[Yes, he's starting his career at GMC this year right along with your student. He'll always have a soft spot for members of the class of 2020.]

4. Students will meet with their faculty advisors to discuss registration for spring courses in the month of...

A. September

[October is when students meet with advisors to determine their spring courses in October, but they'll already spend a lot of time with advisors right from the start!]

B. October

[Yes!]

C. November

[October is when students meet with advisors to determine their spring courses in October, but November is a great time to start exploring a major, or even getting to know an advisor in a major.]

5. The "Academic Path" is...

A. A fun trail at the College's Deane Preserve

[No, but that's a great place to hike!]

B. An electronic learning plan in which students set goals and gauge their progress

[Yes!]

C. The path down to the rope swing on the Poultney River

[No, but some of our faculty can tell you that's a great place to swim in the summer.]
